Keep Out of the Way of Temptation He Urges

TEMPERATURE NO DETERRENT

Four Thousand Attend Service—800 Walk Trail

'Don't hitch your horse to the same old hitching post after you take Christ into your lives, as you did before you became a christian," Dr W. E. Biederwolf said at the Friday evening tabernacle meeting. Get out of the rut. Give up your old unsaved friends Either bring them to God or leave them behind and walk out for Him

I know of an old man," he continued, 'who was converted and then in a few weeks was brought up before the deacons of the church for an explanaion. The minister was there and he said 'Well, Johnson I am not surprised that you got drunk I expected it. 'Why,' said the man you have no confidence in me Is that the way you feel toward the one you recently converted?' The minister then said: 'I did have confidence when you were converted, because you seemed so sincere but one day I was in town and I noticed that your horse was hitched to the same old hitching post by the saloon, where you had always hitched it. Right then I said to myself, He is slipping and of course you did The temptation was too much for you If you had hitched the horse by the Methodist church where you found God and had taken me to town with you and had my influence to keep you away from the saloon, you might have stood on your feet. But you fell. Now change your hitching post, drop your old bunch and make a big fight for Jesus Christ!'"

COLD NO DETERRENT

Friday night was a cold night; seemingly more cold than it was, because of the little warm spell before, but in spite of this charge of temperature, 4,000 people were in the tabernacle at the evening service and 800 men ad women went to the altar and took the hand of the evangelist for Jesus Christ, that they might give their lives into His keeping

The evening meeting was opened by a short song service by the choir and congregation It was announced that there were large delegations from New Hampshire, Third Street Mission church and the Business Girls of Lima

George L Stevens, evangelist of world note who is visiting the Biederwolf party, offered the opening prayer

E J Rollings announced that Dr. Biederwolf will preach Saturday evening on the religions of the world Dr Biederwolf recently made a trip around the world and his information concerning the other countries will be first hand. There will be no service in the tabernacle Sunday morning, but Dr. Biederwolf will speak to men only Sunday at 2 30 p m. This will be one of the evangelist's best sermons; he says, and he urges that a big crowd attend the meeting. Sunday at 2 30 p m. Mrs. Frances C. Allison will speak to women only at Trinity M E. church Dr. Biederwolf will preach Sunday at 7 p. m. at the tabernacle.

After a solo by John Ross Reed, Dr Biederwolf announced his text. 'Jesus said unto him, rise, take up thy bed and walk" The subject of the sermon was, "The way into the kingdom"

"The three parts of the text," said Biederwolf, "give a full explanation of how to get into the kingdom of Jesus Christ First, make up your mind that you are for God, then get up to your feet out of the bed of sin Second, pick up your bed of sin and cast it away from you, that it will not be there for you to fall back upon Third, after casting your bed to one side, walk out for Him. Live for Him and be a saviour for your Heavenly Father. Do all that you can while on earth, to make the way clear for someone else. Then after you get up, cast your bed of sin away and walk out for Jesus Christ. You have made your way open into the gates of heaven

THE BACKSLIDER

"The saddest thing on earth is to see a soul that has been saved, go sliding and limping back to its bed of sin.

'We are like a great ship that is to be launched. We are baptised as the ship is christened. Everyone one wishes us bon voyage and we go plunging light-hearted into the big sea. For a while everything goes smooth, for we have not got far away from the shore of home and protection, but presently great waves of temptation shake our frame We shudder and stagger, but with a toss of our head we plunge thru and find a quiet sea just on the other side. Many waves of temptation and rocks of sin block our way We have many a battle on the sea of life If we are made of the right timber and our captain —conscience—sticks to his job, we will be able to steer clear of the dangers and will arrive on the other side amid the cheer. of the multitude. But if our timbers are weak and we allow our conscience to sleep, we will be dashed hard upon some rock of sin that will tear a great hole in our side and we will

2,500 DESTITUTE IN FIRE'S WAKE

HEART OF CITY, IN RUINS

24 Blocks Swept and Loss is Put at $12,000,000

ASTORIA. Ore. (Associated Press)—Astoria today surveyed its losses from the $12,000,000 fire which yesterday razed 24 blocks of the city's business section, and set on foot measures to relieve the 2,500 persons made homeless by the conflagration.

With the heart of the city still smouldering in ruins, plans for rebuilding were nebulous, but it was the general sentiment that reconstruction on a larger and more substantial scale would start as soon as the more immediate relief needs were supplied.

Hundreds of telegrams offering money and supplies were received and the relief committee announced large amounts of staple foods and quantities of clothing were needed at once. Word from Portland was that a special train carrying supplies would be sent from there today.

Summarized, the situation was as follows:

Twenty-five hundred persons homeless.

The city without banking facilities.

No food obtainable except from a central distributing bureau established by a swiftly organized committee of fifty.

MEAL STATIONS

Last night beds were provided for all and hot meals were served at several stations.

Hundreds of homes have been thrown open to those made destitute and orders were given to commandeer all of the city s food supplies.

Lighting facilities were partly restored last night but thruout the darkened district a heavy guard of soldiers and special policemen prevented looting.

Chief of Police Carlson said that 14 men had been arrested b, his officers during the confusion and that all were attempting to carry away articles from stores within the district

Fire fighting apparatus still was working early today and will until all the embers have been extinguished.

Officials of the Oregon national guard sent 17 officers and men here from Portland with 1,000 cots, 2,000 blankets, rolling kitchens and food supplies. The latter equipment would be sufficient to feed 3,500 persons in emergency, it was stated.

Three churches were in the path of the flames, but none was burned. In each case the fire was either checked before the church was reached or veered around the house of worship

When flames threatened the city jail, the doors were opened and about 35 prisoners were released. The jail docket disappeared and no record of the malefactors could be found.

Prisoners from the county jail were released when flames seemed convicted men said to be awaiting transportation to the state penitentiary aided District Attorney Erickson in removing law books and furniture from his office.

CLARA TRAILED TO CHIHUAHUA

Hammer Murderess Believed Hiding in Mexican City

JUAREZ, Mex.—(United Press)—Clara Phillips, "tiger woman" who escaped from a Los Angeles jail after her conviction of the "hammer murder" of Alberta Meadows, was believed today to be hiding in Chihuahua City or some other community of northern Chihuahua.

Shortly after Detective Captain Claude Smith of El Paso claims he saw the woman here, Juarez police saw a heavily veiled woman enter an automobile on the outskirts of the city. The machine roared off to the south.

Authorities both here and at El Paso believe Mrs. Phillips' flight parallels that of Clara Smith Hamon, who came into Mexico after shooting Jake Hamon to death in Oklahoma.

Mrs. Hamon found shelter and protection in Chihuahua at the hands of a certain religious sect. It was believed probable that the "tigress" had done likewise.

Officers at El Paso have notified federal authorities of Captain Smith's belief that he saw Clara and a systematic search of Chihuahua City and surrounding towns was believed imminent.

Picone pleaded self-defense. Buggea threatened to kill both Picone and his father, the defense showed.

ARC, GAS LAMPS TO BURN TONIGHT

City, Citizens Must be Protected; Officials Decide

ISSUE NOTES TO PAY COST

Financial Relief from Legislature is Anticipated

All street lights will burn Saturday night, it was announced at city hall Saturday morning.

Orders have been issued to the Ohio Power Co., and the Lima Gas Co. to turn on all lights Saturday night. This fact was confirmed by the officials of the two latter companies.

Decision to illuminate the streets was made by the city commissioners at an unscheduled meeting late Friday. Upon recommendation of C. A. Bingham, city manager, it was decided to restore the service.

While there are no funds in the city treasury at the present time for the payment of salaries, street light, or other expenses, it is necessary to protect the city and its citizens, officials have decided.

ISSUE NOTES

When bills for power and light have become due and payable it will be possible to issue short time notes for their payment, it is pointed out. These notes must be paid off from 1923 tax receipts, it was stated.

This will be subtracting from next year's receipts to provide for this year s costs, it is pointed out, but the commission is hoping that the state legislature will take some action to relieve the desperate situation the cities are in.

Manager Bingham was not at the city hall Saturday morning and the managers of the electric and gas companies had not received the official order to turn on the lights, they said. The lamps will burn, however, as Bingham gave them a verbal order, they said.

Turning on the gas lamps will be a tremendous job, Frank Pringle, manager of the gas company, said. The two men lighting the pilot lamps, will be compelled to travel 75 miles to complete the circuit.

Another meeting of the city commission wil lprobably be held Saturday afternoon to work out further details of the street lighting and cleaning program, it was announced.

No date has been set today for the examination demanded by Mrs. Ford's attorneys.

The defense of Mrs. Ford, should she be brought to trial is expected to be based on her statement to the prosecutor that she was subject to intermittent loss of memory, or temporary insanity.

HEART PUT INTO MANY FARMERS

Agricultural Situation Improved, Washington Reports

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press)—The general agricultural situation in the United States has improved slightly as indicated by the monthly agricultural review of the department of agriculture. Cotton, grain and livestock product prices, as well as prices of things farmers have to buy, have risen slowly, the October price index on ten farm products being 110 compared with 100 for 1913.

"This has put a little money into the pockets of some farmers, put heart into many mbre, and has done both for those who carry farm products thru the channels of trade," the review says.

The prices the farmer pays for other than food products ,according to the wholesale price index, has risen to 169 compared with 100 in 1913. Thus a unit of farm products will purchase 35 per cent less of other commodities than it would in 1913.

November figures indicate an abnormal movement of population from farms to towns.

Agricultural conditions in the east are relatively poor. Potato, apple, hay and truck growers are thoroly discouraged, the report says. Some poultry men are doing fairly well, but most dairymen are having all they can do to break even.

Farmers in the corn belt are somewhat encouraged at the rise in grain prices. A heavy fall run of hogs to market, as well as heavy movement of feeder cattle and sheep to farms, is reported. Winter grains show good stands.

Wheat belt shippers have been hampered by an almost unprecedented shortage of freight cars. Winter wheat stands are reported generally fairly good.

SCHOOL BOARD'S RECORDS PROBED

Chicago's Education Body is Declared Incompetent

CONTRACTS INVESTIGATED

Indictments Reported as Voted by Grand Jury

CHICAGO — (Associated Press) —Discrepancies in financial accounts of the Chicago school board were alleged by an auditing company that investigated the books of the board at the direction of Robert E. Crowe, state's attorney, and made public today its report which stated it had been unable to account for $1,398,198 in the factory division and 94,236 tons of coal valued at $748,493.

The report stated that a checkup of the cost of general repairs and equipment showed an increase of 350 per cent, "notwithstanding the almost general reduction in material prices shown by 1921 as against 1919."

"GROSSLY INCOMPETENT"

Commenting on one school division, the report said, "the business administration x x x x x x to say the least, was grossly incompetent."

In elucidating its report on coal purchasing the auditing company said that an "increase in price of 78 per cent shown by 1920-21 over the burning season of 1919-20 appears excessive."

The board's method of paying factory wages was characterized as "loose" and in further explanation the report asserted "the seeming similarity of handwriting shown on indorsements of several pay checks, payable to different payees, and many men's time tickets apparently in one handwriting, altho each man is responsible for the making out of his own time ticket, were matters also brought to the attention of your assistants."

CONTRACTS PROBED

"Nothing seems to have been left undone by the board to make the figures unreconcilable," the report stated in connection with the books of the factory division.

"The board's auditor and factory accountants admitted that they themselves were unable to identify certain items"

Coal contracts let by the school board have been investigated by a grand jury and several indictments were reported to have been voted. At present four members of the board are under indictment on charges of conspiracy.

ENVOYS GUARDED AT LONDON MEET

Conference of Premiers on Reparations is Opened

LONDON — (United Press) — Hundreds of detectives from Scotland Yard, some disguised as waiters and cooks, guarded Premier Poincare of France and Premier Mussolini of Italy today as the conference of allied premiers opened.

After Bonar Law saw Poincare, all eyes fixed on the conference focus on Mussolini, the Fascisti premier, who has caught the world's imagination as a statesman of a school all his own. He is hailed as the "X-of Allied Algebra."

The conference was formally opened at noon when Poincare, Mussolini and Theunis of Belgium went together to Number 10 Downing-st.

American observers were present and it had been reported the United States intended to make its voice heard here as at Lausanne, altho not participating actively in the work of the parley.

POSED AS OFFICER POLICE CHARGE

St. Marys Farmer Held on Complaint Made by Girl

MAY BE FEDERAL CASE

Impersonated Government Man, Woman Tells Judge

A charge of impersonating an officer was placed against Frank P. Green, 86, farmer, R. D. 2, St. Marys, Saturday following investigation of a complaint filed against him at police headquarters by Miss Cecil Brown, 016 W. Eureka-st.

Police say they will transfer the case to federal court at once. Green is alleged to have represented himself to the girl as a federal officer.

The man was taken into custody by Detective Chief Willis B. Kipker of the Lima police court at 903 1-2 S. Main-st. He was haled before Judge Jackson in criminal court where he was subjected to examination. Miss Brown was also required to tell her story to the court.

ANSWERS ADVERTISEMENT

Green is said to have called Miss Brown Friday in answer to a newspaper advertisement inserted in a Lima paper by the girl requesting stenographic work. While talking with the girl concerning her advertisement, he claimed to be a government man who needed a stenographer for secret work, Miss Brown told Jackson. The position could not be had without an examination, Green is alleged to have said.

He took profuse "notes" during the conversation, she told the court. When searched Saturday a paper with indistinguishable hieroglyphics scratched upon it was found on his person. The paper was said to have been the one on which he took the "notes."

Saturday morning, Green phoned the girl and asked that she call to see him at 903 1-2 S. Main-st, where he was staying, she said. She became suspicious and called police.

Kipker was detailed to the case. He posed as her cousin and accompanied her on the scheduled visit to the man.

Kipker requested him to come to police headquarters when he too became suspicious of the man's actions.

Green's story conflicted with that of the girl. He claimed to have told her that he was an agriculturist. He failed, however, to deny details of her narrative.

Green told Jackson that he wanted to employ the girl to type copy for a book on hog breeding, which he is writing.

Jackson refused to handle the case in police court, declaring that it should be referred to federal authorities.

Police will inform federal agents of the case at once and ask that they investigate.

ROBY, DIVORCED, SEEKS TO REGAIN CONTROL OF HIS THREE CHILDREN

Motion to dismiss an appeal filed in appeals court by Clarence Roby, E. Eureka-st, to set aside a verdict in common pleas court granting custody of three children to Mrs. Ida Roby, 117 N. West-st, his former wife, will be argued December 18.

Roby originally won custody of the children in a divorce action. The children had previously been made wards of juvenile court.

Mrs. Roby later won a decision setting aside that part of the decree giving the children to the father.

A clash of authority between juvenile court and common pleas court appeared imminent. Juvenile Judge J. H. Hamilton announced that the children were wards of his court and that their final disposition was in his hands. He has allowed the eldest child to reside with the mother, however. The younger children are in the Allen-co home part of the time.

MARRIAGE BY RADIO IS DECLARED ILLEGAL

ALBANY, N. Y. — A marriage ceremony performed by radio is illegal, according to a construction today placed upon the domestic relations law by State Attorney General Newton. The words "in the presence" as contained in the law, mean an actual and not constructive presence, the attorney general holds.

"It is essential that the witnesses and persons officiating should be immediately at hand as it is that the contracting parties to the marriage should be in view of each other," Mr. Newton said. Question as to the legality of a radio ceremony was brought up by the proposal to have a San Francisco clergyman broadcast the ritual to contracting parties in the Grand Central Palace in New York City. The bride and groom were to broadcast their responses in return.

NEW FARM CREDIT PLANS ARE PUT BEFORE CONGRESS

WASHINGTON — Two more farm credit plans were added today to the dozen or more already before congress.

A bill amending the farm loan act to provide additional credits was introduced by Senator Norbeck, Republican, South Dakota, and Representative Strong, Republican, Kansas, while another introduced by Senator Norbeck and Representative A. P. Nelson, Republican, Wisconsin would authorize the war finance corporation to make loans to foreign purchasers of American agricultural products.

pBth of the bills are endorsed by the American Farm Bureau Federation.

Increase from $10,000 to $25,000 of the Maximum loan which could be made to an individual farmer by cooperative farm land banks is one of the principal features of the Norbeck-Strong bill. Such loans also under the new bill, would be available for security on machinery and other debts of borrowers and not limited, as under the present law, to land and buildings.

AGED WOMAN 71 YEARS YOUNG

Friend of Working Girls Called Mother by Them

SPENT LIFE AMONG YOUTH

Maintains Co-operative Home for Feminine Needy

By BOB DORMAN

NEW YORK — "Mother" Sarah Allen, widely known friend of working girls, has just celebrated her 71st birthday.

A lovely old lady, with a crown of silver hair and bright, merry blue eyes, she insists that "I am 71 years young, if you please.

"My girls see to that. They impart to me something of their spirit of youth and in exchange I give them what I have of the wisdom of age.

"All my life has been spent among youth.

"Always young girls have seemed to gravitate to me with their confidences, both of joy and sorrow.

CITY GIRLS NEED HER

"And there as so many of them in the big cities needing and longing for a mother's care. Especially here in New York.

"Girls fired by youth's golden dream of conquest come with high hopes, only to find bitter disillusion.

"Then they need a helping hand, a smile of friendship, a word of hope, to carry them safely thru.

"And because I have extended those prerogatives of a mother to any down-hearted girl, many of them have come to call me "mother."

"I love these girls of mine. Their confidences are my repayment."

Mrs. Allen for 40 years has devoted her life to helping working girls.

STARTED WORK IN DETROIT

Before coming to New York two years ago she maintained in Detroit a cooperative home for working girls where they could get their own meals and do their washing and ironing.

Thousands of girls passed thru her home, finding there new energy for life's hard struggle.

"Mother" Allen's supreme joy comes when one of her girls whispers in her ear, that "the right man has come at last," for, says Mother Allen, woman's greatest career is in the home.

ROBBER RETURNS $200 LOOT

Property Stolen From Home Near Delphos Recovered

A fear-laden conscience is believed responsible for the return Friday of jewelry and money valued at $200, stolen two months ago from Joseph A. Recker, residing on the Shafner farm, three and a half miles northeast of Delphos.

Delphos police received a message from Becker Friday night that the missing property had been located, part of it at the rear of the house in a wood pile and the remainder on a dresser in a bedroom from which it had been stolen. The robbery occurred October 10.

Recker notified police at 11 p. m. on that date and a thoro search of the premises was made. No clues were found except that the robber was accompanied by a dog.

Police then went to the farm of Dennis Krieft nearby and arrested a Belgian beet worker on suspicion, but there was not sufficient evidence against him and he was released.

Recker sees in the mysterious return of the valuables the working of a troubled conscience. He knows nothing about the manner of its return or how the robber succeeded in "planting" it without attracting attention of the family, Recker told police.

The jewelry consists of a lady's gold watch, a man's watch, fountain pen and lodge button.

TAX COLLECTION TO BE STARTED MONDAY

Tax collections will begin Monday, Harry E. Botkins, county treasurer, announced Saturday.

Botkins is prepared to handle a flood of money which he anticipates will come rolling in before Christmas. Payment, he believes will be made more promptly than here-to-fore, as the public is beginning to appreciate that time saving effected by getting in early, he says.

"Our books are all ready," declared the treasurer, "and we can take the money as fast as it comes. The earlier the better."

DUES INCREASED

Decision to increase yearly dues from $2.50 to $3.50 has been made by Commemorative Post, Delphos American Legion, according to Commander G. L. McKenzie. The move was made to accumulate more funds for local purposes. Each membership under the new plan will give $2.50 to the post treasury and 50 cents apiece to the national and state organizations. The new rate will become effective in January.

Big Property Loss in Rail Smash-up Near Delphos

Two unidentified train riders are believed to have been killed in a wreck of a Clover Leaf railroad freight train at Ft. Jennings at 10:45 a. m. Saturday.

Fifteen freight cars were overturned and the track was torn up for a distance of 350 feet by the wreck, which was caused by the trucks of the first car splitting a switch point.

The men, believed dead, were hoboes, who were seen by the train crew some time before the accident, and who cannot be found and trainmen declared that the men are buried underneath the wreckage.

CARS PILED UP

The train was composed mostly of oil tank cars, seven of which were overturned. The other cars which were demolished are: one coal car, two empty refrigerator cars, two gondolas. Two box cars of merchandise jumped the track, but did not overturn.

The wreckage cannot be cleared away until the wreck train arrives sometime Saturday afternoon from Frankfort, Ind., altho all available Clover Leaf shopmen in Delphos have been taken to the scene.

Railway officials estimate that the tracks will not be cleared until Sunday. In the meantime plans are being made to reroute trains thru Lima over the B. & O. tracks to Toledo, coming here over the P. F. W. & C. Railroad.

Engineer Paul Stippich and Fireman Fred Wichert of the wrecked train, reside in Delphos. They escaped injury as did other members of the train crew.

CURED HIS RHEUMATISM!

"I am eighty-three years old and I doctored for rheumatism ever since I came out of the army, over 50 years ago. Like many others, I spent money freely for so-called 'cures' and I have read about 'Uric Acid' until I could almost taste it. I could not sleep nights or walk without pain; my hands were so sore and stiff I could not hold a pen. But now I am again in active business and can walk with ease or write all day with comfort. Friends are surprised at the change." You might just as well attempt to put out a fire with oil as try to get rid of your rheumatism, neuritis and like complaints by taking treatment supposed to drive Uric Acid out of your blood and body. It took Mr. Ashelman fifty years to find out the truth. He learned how to get rid of the true cause of his rheumatism, other disorders, and recover his strength from "The Inner Mysteries," now being distributed free by an authority who devoted over twenty years to the scientific study of this trouble. If any reader of "The Inner Mysteries of Rheumatism" overlooked by doctors and scientists for centuries past, simply send a post card or letter to H. P. Clearwater, No. 406-C Street, Hallowell, Maine. Send now, lest you forget! If not a sufferer, cut out this notice and hand this good news and opportunity to some afflicted friend. All who send will receive it by return mail without any charge whatever. —Adv.

SUNSHINE TODAY; GONE TOMORROW

Enjoying the bright sunshine while it was assured, Ted was out bright and early Saturday, strolling about the streets, determined to extract all the pleasures of the joy of living possible— before rain or snow comes as scheduled.

At the particular period this is written, the sun is doing its level best to break December records, taking the sharpness off the edge of the temperature, which resulted from a breath of icy chill out of the northwest during the night season.

Unsettled weather, with snow or rain Sunday and probably in south portions tonight, is the official forecast. It means—probably — that there will be a considerable rise in temperature, altho the forecaster says such a thing is not imminent. In that event, precipitation will likely be in the form of snow.

After all, it makes little material difference.

WIFE REFUSED TO COOK MEALS; DIVORCE IS WON

Conley Guilford, 39, won a divorce from Elsa Guilford, 42, in common pleas court Saturday, after he had told Judge Fred C. Becker his mate refused to prepare meals for him.

She is now residin in another city and would not live in Lima, Guilford told the court. The husband testified that the first three years of their marital existence was fairly peaceable, but the succeeding 12 grew more stormy as time progressed.

On frequent occasions the defendant flew into a rage and hurled articles at him, he said.

Guilford also accused his wife of running about with other women when she should have been at home attending to her household duties. They have no children.

POWER LINES SOON READY

New electric transmission lines being constructed between Delphos and Van Wert are nearly completed, it was announced Saturday by officials of the Northwestern Ohio Light company in Delphos. The lines will carry current from the Delphos plant for use in Van Wert. Work has been held up because of lack of material, it is stated.

CITY PLAN BALKED BY PHILLIPS

County Auditor Holds Lima Must Collect Assessments

Plans made by the city to have street lighting and cleaning assessments collected by the county along with general taxes in June, may hit a snag, it was indicated Saturday

Manager Clarence A. Bingham, who planned to have the county to the collecting from property owners, has over-looked a section or so in the city charter, County Auditor C. R. Phillips believes.

In a letter to the auditor Saturday, Bingham sought to learn how soon the assessments would have to be filed under Section 3812-4 to have the cost added to June tax collections.

Phillips in reply asks Bingham's authority for assuming that special assessments can be so handled. He does not believe it can be done.

"It is up to the city treasurer," declared Phillips, "In section 56 of the city charter it is provided that all special assessments, levied and apportioned by the city of Lima, on the property owners within the city limits shall be payable only to the city treasurer.'"

Delinquent assessments can be certified over to the county in the regular way, however, Phillips holds.

Under the charter, Phillips is of the opinion that the city will have to do its own collecting.

PLAN MEETING WEDNESDAY TO REORGANIZE GAME BODY

James W. Stuber, assistant chief of the fish and game department of Ohio, gave a short address at Central High school auditorium Friday night, in the interests of reforming the Allen-co Fish and Game Protective association.

Motion pictures showing wild game life in the state were featured and at the close of the meeting it was decided that an attempt would be made to recognize the association Wednesday night, when a meeting of sportsmen, farmers and business men who are interested in stocking Allen-co with game and fish are invited to be present.

Held More Strictly Responsible for Acts, Forbes Says

RESULT OF DEMOCRATIC WAVE

People Becoming Task Masters, the Writer Declares

(BY B. C. FORBES

NEW YORK.—(Special).—A man recently got a rather big job. He was much elated over it and talked a lot about the privileges and powers he would have.

When I suggested that he would now be solely responsible for this, that and the next result, he looked at me quizzically.

And I gathered from what he then said that he hadn't given half as much thought to what his responsibilities would be as to what his privileges and powers would be.

Men occupying high positions are going to be held more strictly responsible and accountable for the results of their acts in future than they have been held in the past.

This is going to apply to business life just as much as to public life.

The shooting of the Greek statesmen and military leaders held responsible by the people for bringing about the humiliating defeat of Greece has aroused international comment, even indignation.

But this incident is strictly in line with the universal trend.

As a matter of fact, the overthrow of one dynasty after another during recent years, including the downfall of the German kaiser and the Russian czar, is illustrative of this growing determination upon the part of the common people to hold their superiors to strict account for their actions and the results flowing therefrom. Other national leaders have been arraigned for trial on the continent of Europe today, and, to my mind this trend is destined to become more and more pronounced.

Take financial and industrial affairs in our own country.

High positions hereafter to carry with them fewer privileges and more responsibilities.

In the olden days Presidents of railroads and other large enterprises snapped their fingers at the ordinary stockholders and at the public. All they had to do in order to retain their places was to please the capitalist or the clique of capitalists controlling the company.

The railroads and the great industrial organizations are no longer controlled lock, stock and barrel by Morgans or Harrimans or Hills or Bakers or Vanderbilts or Goulds. Control of them now lies, and will lie tomorrow, in the hands of armies of investors among the general public.

And it is these armies that men holding the highest executive positions must report to and satisfy hereafter.

Charles M. Schwab only a few weeks ago re-arranged the financial structure of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation in a way that transferred control from his hands and placed it in the hands of the stockholders. Moreover, Mr. Schwab publicly announced that he was no longer the active, dominating, day by night manager of the company's activities. Mr. Schwab wanted it clearly understood that responsibility for the management of the company had been gradually transferred to the shoulders of President Grace and other young executives. Thus the stockholders will know whom to hold responsible for results in the future.

As the people living in democracies realize their powers more and more, they are likely to become strict task masters. What has happened in Greece and what is happening in certain other European countries is, I believe, significant and portentous.

The Democratization of capital, of huge business enterprises, is to bring similar results. Whether a president of a corporation shall be retained is not in future going to be determined always and solely by some capitalist or clique of capitalists. The rank and file of stockholders, plus public opinion, are going to assert themselves and decree whether a man shall continue or cease to retain his position and responsibilities.

Indeed, I believe that the day is coming when the employes of business organizations are going to have at least some voice in the selecting and the dismissing of the highest up executives.

I know a recent instance where a very high salaried executive was ousted solely because the employees let it be known in no uncertain tones that they could not and would not do their best for the company so long as he was kept in power. This man was held in the highest regard by the wealthy man dominating the company. But out he went.

Yes, all through life it is going to be driven home to those who acquire power that, "as ye sow, so shall ye reap." Power is to carry with it fewer privileges. It is to carry with it responsibilities. And for the proper discharge of these responsibilities there is going to be stricter holding to account.

* * *

All this is well. Many of the worst woes the world has known have been brought about by incompetents holding positions conferring abnormal powers for the wise discharge of which the rank and file of the people could demand no accounting. In future it is going to be more dangerous for any man to possess inordinate power if he has not sufficient brains to exercise that power in a way accepted by the people as satisfactory to them.

Tabernacle Sidelights

"I wonder who started the idea of breaking a bottle over the nose of ship," said Dr. Biederwolf. "It is just the same as breaking a bottle of beer over your baby's head when you to baptize it."

* * *

"There are some fellows who won't go into the kingdom of God at all unless they can get in head first. But God never said: 'My son, give me thin head; He said, 'My son give me thine heart. You must get your head and heart together.'"

When Biederwolf shouted: "Breakers dead ahead" one could almost hear the waters splash on the tabernacle and feel the old temple jar as she seemed to plunge into the storm of the sea.

"The most appropriate hymn for some of you to sing is "Asleep in Jesus, Blessed Sleep,' with deep thought on the sleep," the evangelist said.

ALLEN-CO EVANGELIST TO GO ON TRIAL MONDAY AT SIDNEY IN CHILD CASE

Rev. L. W. Irwin, former Harrod pastor, will go on trial in Shelby-co. common pleas court at Sidney Monday, charged with contributing to the delinquency of Elizabeth Ladd, 11, his step-daughter.

Subpoenas more than a score of Allen-co witnesses are said to have been forwarded to Sheriff C. W. Baxter, to be served. The witnesses will testify for the most part for the state.

The state will attempt to show in the trial that Irwin is the father of Billy Ladd, born to little Elizabeth in July. After long weeks of questioning, Elizabeth finally named Irwin as the father.

The case has attracted wide attention in medical circles, on account of the extreme youth of the mother. The baby now weighs nine pounds and is apparently normal and healthy.

About a year ago, two brothers died in the same manner.

Police declared the killing was the result of a feud of long standing.

sink down out of life into a hell from which we never will be able to rise again.

"Christian people," the evangelist exclaimed, "what are you living for? There is a heaven to gain and a hell to shun. Don't be one th t is ready to lie down and slip into Heaven thru a tunnel on some sort of a car. Work your way up to the front door. If your start for the Home of your God by some easy route, you may slip and fall by the wayside. Some church members love the song 'Sleepin Jesus, Blessed Sleep.' All they want to do is sing and praise the Lord's name, but they will not step out into the world for Him.

"There was a farmer who hired a man to work for him," Dr. Biederwolf said. "The hand had to be called every morning; he would do nothing all day but praise the farmer, speak of the softness of his bed and the goodness of the meals. This did not please the farmer, so he let the man go and hired another who was willing to slop the hogs, milk the cows and work all day to show his appreciation of the farmer's bed, food and wage. Be like the last man. Do all you can for your Heavenly Father, who is doing so much for you every day.

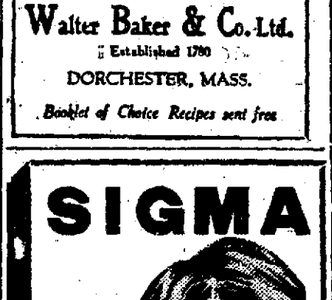

"There were two men who had steam launches, of which they were very proud. They decided one day to start out upon a trip and see which launch could blow its whistle the hardest. Each blew and blew. The call of the horns could be heard for miles around, but at last one of the launches stopped. So much steam had been used in blowing the whistles that there was not enough left to move the boat. Don't be like that. All blow and no go. It is much better to do the going and let the other fellow do the blowing. If you are worth a blow, someone will do it for you.

"Come," the evangelist said at the close of the service, "Come to the front for God, that you may join His army on earth and conquer the world for Him. There will be many hard ships on the journey to salvation. To be a Christian is not a wide road over which you may ride in a palace car. It is narrow. Many times you will have to crawl and climb over some steep temptation, but victory is just on the other side. It is for only a little while and then you will stand before your Maker. If you have walked His way, He will throw wide open the pearly gates of Heaven and you may go in and reunite with your family, to stay with them forever and forever in the House of God. But if you have driven up in your palace car and got out before God with gold and gems, He will rebuke you, the gates of Heaven will shut in your very face and you will be left standing with your petty splendor on the outside. You cannot remain there at the gates. The angel of death moves you on. You will have to get into your palace car once more. The next stop will be the underworld and there you will be pulled into hell amid the cries of pain and sorrow and there you will remain in torture thru all eternity."

Eight hundred men and women were gathered in prayer at the altar and the evangelist said: "It has been hard tonight. It has taken so much pleading but I would rather see you take your time and think it over. You will be only more sincere when you do decide the question of your salvation. I would be glad to stand here all night and plead with you if it would mean the real salvation of your souls. No greater work could be done and even if I should drop dead in the morning, I would be glad that I had been of some good to you."

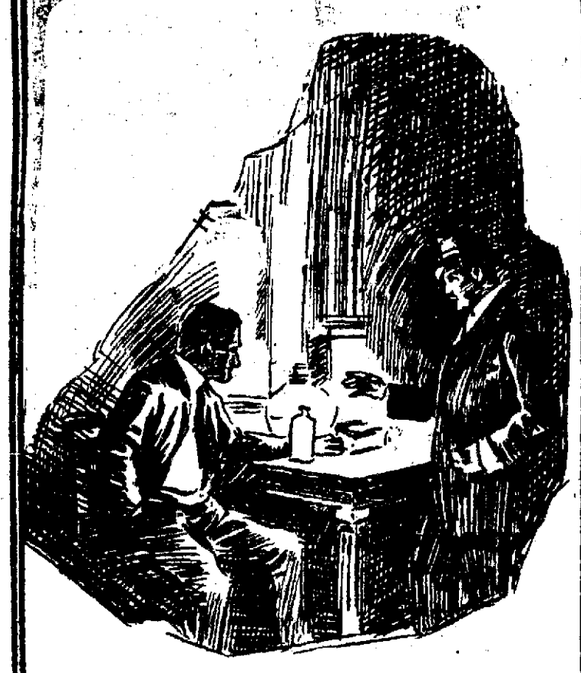

Moving pictures of the bird life and animal life of Ohio were shown Friday at 4 p. m. to over 600 school children at the tabernacle.

YOUR FUTURE

YOU have noticed that hard times and prosperity follow each other in cycles, like spokes of a revolving wheel. Makes life uncertain. You never know for sure what to expect.

A valuable tip along this line is furnished by Colonel Leonard W. Ayres. In business he's the statistician for a Cleveland bank and known internationally. Uncle Sam uses his "figgers"—keeps him on the army's general staff.

Colonel Ayres, after analyzing business conditions in the last 60 years, makes this discovery:

"During this long period, as many as four years out of each 10 have been years of SERIOUS business depression."

In other words, striking an average, two years out of every five are genuine hard times. And, probably, out of the three remaining years, one is a period of mild depression, one a year of half-hearted prosperity, and only one year in the five a genuine boom period.

APPLY this to your personal life. It means: Two out of each five years of your life will be times when the shoe will pinch tightly.

If you live 60 years, 24 of them will be in periods of hard times. In the remaining 36 years you will either be operating in prosperous conditions or at least getting a fair run for your money.

Out of the entire 60 years, probably not more than 12 will be years of "easy picking."

IN a lifetime of 60 years, according to these figures, the average man has 36 years in which he makes or breaks himself and his fortunes.

During these 36 years of varying degrees of prosperity, it is necessary to build up a reserve fund for the 24 years of hard times.

This truth has been known since ancient days in Egypt when one of the Pharaohs stored grain during seven fat years to provide food for the seven lean years that followed.

America now is definitely well into a period of better times. The depression that began in May, 1920, still is fresh in our memories. We should keep it there indelibly.

Hard times do not last forever. Neither does prosperity. Hard times will come again — in your lifetime. If wise, you are preparing—laying away a financial umbrella for a rainy day. And you have noticed, that it seems less inclined to rain when you have an umbrella.

SALARIES ARE DROPPING

SALARIES of "white collar workers" (one branch of our own Fascisti) are a tenth to a fifth less than a year ago, and steadily dropping. So reports American Employment Exchange, New York City.

Office boys are holding their own and even getting ahead a trifle. They now average $12.33 a week, says the report, against average of $22 weekly for grown-ups who clerk in offices. Millions of "office help" will be interested in comparing their incomes with the New Yorkers'.

BEAUTY

LORADO TAFT, Chicago sculptor, laments that the only objects of beauty in the average American small town are its girls and its trees.

What more does he want?

No artist ever produced anything as beautiful as girls and trees. Art, at its best, is only a poor counterfeit of nature. Ask any artist who has ever tried to paint aurora borealis.

Great poets come from the country or small towns, says Taft, because their "imagination is cultivated by the lack of the jiggling movie show of the cities."

o o o

ART

GEOMETRIC art, picturing things in straight lines and angles, appears in Paris. It's described as new, but the cubists had much the same thing years ago when Dr. Max Nordau wrote "Degeneration."

Nature works in curves—horizon, sea-wave, star orbits. When an artist sees nature in straight lines and angles instead of graceful curves, he generally has an eye disease, usually nystagmus.

THE average baby at birth weighs eight pounds. One is born, weighing only one pound, in London, England.

This seems a marvel. More marvelous is the doctors' predictions that the baby will live. Not many years since its death would have been a certainty. Science has to its credit many admirable achievements but nothing more so than what it has done for saving the lives of babies.

ANCIENT

A warship used 2200 years ago by the Vikings will soon be placed on exhibition at the national museum, Copenhagen, Denmark.

This ship, dug out of a bog, is so small that it is being shipped in 15 large packing cases. It was 42 feet long and less than 7 feet wide, manned by 10 oars. Its ancient crew, like other early explorers, had admirable curiosity as well as courage. Compare their craft with a modern steamer and you have a picture of how man has progressed in 22 centuries.

DANGER

PIE insurance is the latest. That's the trade name, but the policies protect restaurants and other sellers of foods in general, from damage suits when the food makes the eaters ill or kills them outright.

Plenty of customers, the insurance people announce. Good reason. A wedding cake, when cut recently in New York, was found to contain a dead rat. It cost the pastry baker $11,000 damages when sued.

Be careful what you eat. Food is the most dangerous thing in civilization, especially when eaten to excess.

Honest Advertising

THIS is a topic we all hear now-a-days because so many people have claimed to exaggerate. Yet how any physician told you that we claimed unreasonable remedial properties for Fletcher's Castoria? Just as them. We won't answer it ourselves, we know what the answer will be.

That it has all the virtues to-day that was claimed for it in its early days is to be found in its increased use, the recommendation by prominent physicians and our assurance that its standard will be maintained.

Imitations are to be found in some stores and only because of the Castoria that Mr. Fletcher created. But it is not the genuine Castoria that Fletcher Honestly advertised, Honestly placed before the public, and for which he Honestly expects to receive his reward.

Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

YOUR SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Prepared for The Lima News by Rev. Hugh T. Stevenson

Statesmen are assembled in conference at Lausanne and Washington seeking to solve the problems of modern society. History records the efforts made in nearly every age, by philosophers, economists, statesmen and sociologists to improve the conditions of humanity. In our lesson for this week we have the solution of all of the problems of society. No person has ever contributed more concerning the principles, practices and problems of humanity than Jesus did in the few words contained in our study for this week. It furnishes the answer to every question of society and states the principle that ought to govern all the affairs of men and nations.

No one knows the place or the person whose effort to entrap Jesus by his adroit question resulted in the Master's contribution of His matchless parable that summed up in a few words His program for society.

STORY OF THE GOOD SAMARITAN

Luke 10:25-37

Golden Text—Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself—Lev. 19:18.

The lesson reveals something of the dialectical ability of the Christ, who turned the tables upon the brilliant expounder of the scriptures, who was a recognized master of all the Jewish laws and teachings, when he sought to entangle Jesus with his hypocritical questions.

The hostile Pharisees were hounding the Lord and the effort of the lawyer, whose duty was altogether different than that of a modern lawyer, to draw the Master into a debate with the hope of entangling him was a part of their program to destroy the prestige and power of Jesus with men. His questions proved that they had selected one of their ablest men, who was a past master in the art of questioning men. Diplomatically, the lawyer addressed Jesus as "Teacher," but he did not deceive the Christ who detected his insincerity in his address and question as to how he could obtain "eternal life." If he had been sincere, like the rich young man who asked Jesus a similar question, the Master would have given him a direct answer. The Lord appeared to have fallen into the snare, when He answered the question with another one, that gave the lawyer opportunity to reveal his knowledge of the scriptures, when Jesus asked "How readest thou?"

THE LAWYER MASTERED

Some have suggested that Christ guided him by a series of questions, which are not recorded, to unite the detached portions of scripture taken from Deuteronomy 6:5 and Leviticus 19:18 in his answer. While possibly correct yet there exists enough probability to favor the view that Jesus knew that the lawyer would be forced to reply, as he did if he were posted in the teachings of the scripture. The first quotation was taken from the verses written upon the small rolls of vellum which every Jew carried on his person in the "phylacteries," that were then bound on their arms or forehead. His selection of the other would indicate that he recognized the fact that religion had a manward side as well as a divine side. Jesus approved of the lawyer's summary of the law. The lawyer had looked for criticism but the Master's approval was unexpected. There was a sharp thrust that revealed to him that Christ knew that he had failed in keeping the law, when the Lord assuming the authority, which He frequently did, said to him, "This do and thou shalt live."

Instead of catching Jesus in a trap the lawyer had been mastered by the Lord in the very realm that he claimed to be his strength. There was something in the words spoken or the manner of the Christ, that made clear to the lawyer that the Master knew of his defective practice. In an effort to justify himself he immediately seized upon the only word in his summary that called for an interpretation and asked one of the greatest social questions of the ages, "Who is my Neighbor?" Although the lawyer was without doubt a high type of Jewish thinker he apparently realized by the Master's approval and advice that he should do what the law taught that there was a wide difference between Christ's conception of social obligations and his own. Probably all the Jews of that time considered that a neighbor from the standpoint of nearness or region, race and religion. A neighbor to them was largely a person of Hebrew speech and sympathy. It was in answer to the lawyer's question, as to who is my neighbor, that Jesus told the story of the "Good Samaritan," which outlined the principles of Christ's Social program.

CHRIST'S SOCIAL PROGRAM

The story carries its own lesson and needs no interpretation. It reveals the attitude that men take in their relations to one another. It shows that Jesus did not consider that a man's religious duty was complete by his profession of love for God unless he proved it by love for his fellow man. The lawyer had outlined with an inerrant instinct the fundamental and elementary of humanity. The Master saw life and religion were alike in relationships and that the dom element in all human relation is love. It was because He saw close relation that existed tween a man's profession an practice that He said to the la "This—not these,—do" and live tried to remove the spirit of inj and indifference to one's nei whom he presented as the on need that we can reach and help lifted the barriers of country creed as he traced from the ger principle of the law the fundan principle of human brothe which is the foundation of mo our modern fraternities and ties.

He painted the spirit of inj that robs men not only on the cho road but in excessive ch for food, fuel and the necessit life. WITH APOLOGIES

BY OH. OH. JACKENRIM

A Page from the Diary of An Antiquated Reporter: I, up at daybreak. Worked long on the driveway, distributing equally the gravel blanket. Breakfasted well, taking my grapefruit raw and the egg, boiled to an even two minutes. Over the coffee, discussed with Auntie May-me the tax recommendations of Secretary Mellon; in which she seemed little interested. And of which I know nothing.

Out, with a laundry bag for Dee, when picked up by private taxi. And so to the poste, gaily greeted by a kindly, tho firm, message from Cashier Theo., of the American Bank & Trust. All the morning going over the kitchen accounts, brot to the office for assistance from the adding machine. And do fynd my wife, poor wretch, it still long on starches and short on sugars. With the Kommunk bill growing larger each month. We do love our White Mountain milk and cream.

Lunched, on an egg sandwich and beaker of milk. Thence to the noble furnace, performing an operation for clinkers, very successful. And the furnace now convalescent. Out, to meet a mutual fryend, informing me that Lee Bright, the brave night yardmaster of the Lake Erie. Now is home from the hospital, all merry and gay. Lee used to order me a stack of wheats at the old The Oak.

In the afternoon, worried over the Tabernacle debt. Albeit, this will be paid. And not by the ravens, methinks. Over to Bill's, where the great grand-son of Mt. Vernon (whose real surname was Mont-gomery) gave me a neat trim. With crushed flower, super-annex. Thence into the City Bank, Elmer busied for the nonce. So down to the Dime Savings and most nobly accommodated.

About the lights. Forget 'em. Brud, Jack, Breck, Ellis and Earl will work it out. That's why we picked such live wires. Oh, there's General Byng himself, all smiling and brave. Dan Morris, president of the First National, bade me bon jour, a man I like much.

In the evening, dined sumptuously at The Argonne. Taking the entire menu, and both choices of vegetables. The sweet, apple pie, with cheese. Maitre d'hotel Haefner greeted me at an adjoining table. The greate dining room so filled, didst wait long for a seating. Which made me think stock in the new company should be picked up quietly, my boy.

While the other half of the family went to the cinema, I to Lima club. To learn President Banta had failed to arrange for the noon prayer meeting which Sol Weisenthal had requested. And Tabernacle folk not pleased thereat. Thence, to The Shack, and reade long in Rebecca West's "The Judge," a sorry tayle.

BENEFIT BOXING SHOW PLEASES FIGHT FANS

BOWEN IS WINNER

Andy Bowen, of Washington, D. C., continued on his road to championship battles Friday night, when he received the referee's decision over Pete Myers, of Columbus, in the twelve-round main go of the benefit show for the Police and Firemen's salary fund at Memorial Hall. The entire card pleased the fans, who were on their feet cheering most of the time.

Bowen carries a vicious left jab, which gained him the decision, and had he been as clever with his right in sending across a kayo punch, he would have dropped Myers for the ten count.

Myers agreed to fight on Wednesday morning and made no special training for the battle. From the fight, it was evident that Bowen's ring craft and experience would overcome Myers, yet after being knocked down twice, Myers was standing squarely on both feet and exchanging blows at the final gong.

In the seventh, the going was rough for the Columbus boy and he went down for a count of nine. The fight was won then, had Bowen been able to use his right, which he was saving for the final blow. Myers, however, staggered to his feet, covered up and held on until the end of the round. In the next frame, Myers came back strong, and sent several stinging body blows into Bowen's kidneys.

In the ninth round, Bowen sent Myers thru the ropes for a count of seven, and again missed a chance to add a kayo on his list.

Myers won the approval of the fans by his nerve and grit in staying in the battle, after it was evident that he was doomed. The first two rounds went to Bowen, the next four were draws and the remaining six were awarded to Bowen.

The ten-round semi-final between Tommy Milton, of Toledo, and Sammy Hess, of Ft. Wayne, was declared a draw after the pair exchanged punches for ten rounds. Hess led the fight during the early rounds and looked to be winning, but Milton started to show his wares in the fifth frame from then on, he seemed to be able to hit Hess with almost everything but a sleep producing punch.

Jimmy Andrews, of Lima, took a decision over Shorty Bursh, of Toledo in the eight-round main preliminary. Bursh possesses lightning speed and a puzzling attack, which seemed to bother the local boy in the first round. After that, Jimmy started strong and took the third, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth rounds on points, altho the Lima battler refused to stand toe-to-toe and exchange blows as he usually fights.

Dick Sharpe, of Kenton, and Paddy Phalen, another Lima battler, fought six rounds to a draw. Phalen led most of the way, but did not carry a decisive punch. Sharpe, while starting fewer blows, put steam and power behind them and earned the draw.

Young Harry Greb and Gene Ryal fought to a draw in the four round curtain raiser.

CRACK ILLINOIS CROSS-COUNTRY TEAM IS RATED HIGH IN INTER-COLLEGIATE TRACK CIRCLES

Coach Gill of the University of Illinois is renowned as a maker of track champions. Lack of material doesn't mean a thing in the life of Gill. When his track teams appear decidedly weak in some particular branch he seems to have the faculty of making a star over noght.

The cross-country team that will represent Illinois on the track is one of the best ever developed at the institution. Gill feels that it will press all the other cross-country teams to the limit. According to Gill, the Illinois team has the speed and the staminia, both so very essential to cross-country running.

DECATUR WINS

St. Rose five-man defense which was counted on to prevent the Decatur, Ind., catholic high school quintet from piling up a winning score proved futile Friday night, Decatur taking the game 15 to 13.

The large crowd of fans who witnessed the fray were on their feet most of the time and no cage game played in Lima for some time has proved so nerve racking and thrilling.

St Rose jumped into the lead during the first minute of the game and was never topped until the last few minutes of play., when Appleman, substitute center dropped the winning goal thru the net for the visitors

Lineup and summary:

When a substitute goes into the game what formality must he go thru?

He must report to the scorers and be recognized by the referee. He cannot communicate with any player until play has been resumed.

If in making a throw for the basket the ball becomes lodged in the supports, how must the ball be put in play, under the basket or in the center circle?

The ball shall be put in play in the center circle.

BLOCKING

What is blocking?

Blocking is impeding the progress of an opponent who has not the ball.

What is the difference between a technical and a personal foul?

A technical foul does not involve personal contact, while a personal foul is committed when a player holds, blocks, trips, pushes or indulges in any other form of unnecessary roughness.

NEW YORK — Satisfactory progress in the preparations for holding the Olympic games at Paris in 1924 is reported in a review received by the American Olympic committee here today. Albert Geiger Jr., chairman of the Boston A. A. Athletic committee who went abroad some weeks ago to investigate conditions from an American team standpoint, said that work on both the stadium and tracks were well advanced.

In his preliminary communication to Frederick W. Rubien, secretary of the A. O. A., Geiger stated that the main running track in the Dolumbes Stadium had been completed and promised to be exceptionally fast by the summer of 1924. Another eighteen months of rolling and top-dressing with later settling and hardening will, in his opinion provide the fastest track ever prepared for Olympic games competitors.

Mrs. Mallory Seeking Another Chance With French Player

(By HENRY L. FARRELL)

NEW YORK — Paving the way for what would undoubtedly be the greatest match of the age between women tennis players, inquiries were sent to southern France today to find out how Suzanne Lenglen's weak heart is coming along.

If the French champion is able to play tournament tennis, Molla Mallory is going to stalk the elusive Suzanne and her title up and down the Riveria early next year.

The Norsewoman, American champion, defeated by Suzanne at Wimbledon in a decisive match for the world's championship considers she is going out after a legitimate "rubber" match, since she beat the French girl at Forest Hills in 1921.

The match, if it is arranged, should be closer and harder fought tahn either of the others; Mlle Lenglen, broke down, coughing at Forest Hills; Molla was off her game in England. If they meet again, the American will have a better chance than before. Suzanne has quite likely gone back, thru lack of fast competition. Her weakened heart, which led her father to make her stop playing in championships after Wimbledon might hamper her any time if she met Mrs. Mallory.

Molla will probably be just as good as ever; she thrives on hard work and years of competition have only improved her court generalship and uncanny eye for the baseline.

KAISER AFTER JOE LYNCH

Johnny Kaiser, rising young bantamweight boxer, is rapidly putting St. Louis on the pugilistic map. He is one of the leading contenders for the featherweight title now held by Joe Lynch.

Pugilistically, St. Louis has been on the fritz. While Missouri's metropolis can snub many neighbors with George Sisler for the American League batting champion, Rogers Horusby for the National League swat king, the Scullins at the national soccer champions, Eddie Held as the winner of last summer's golf tourney for players not identified with clubs, there has never been a stir for a fistic title until Johnny Kaiser qualified for the bantamweight class.

Kaiser, now at the age of 18, is regarded as the fanciest piece of paded mitt machinery ever developed in St. Louis. Graduating from the amateur class years ago, when he swept thru the class of simonpures with a knockout punch, he has advanced to the gates of Joe Lynch's pedestal.

Fighting as an amateur for three years, Kaiser won 63 out of 6 6bouts with a knockout punch. And that wallop is what has impressed the Mound City sharps.

Kaiser is built along the same lines as Lynch, tall, slender and as active as a cat.

His most prominent bouts have been with Pad Moore, Jack Wolfe, Ashton Donza, Billy Mascott and Young Montreal.

Up until several weeks ago Kaiser has never engaged in a bout away from his home arena. However, he is going thru the test at present and is in New York to prove that he is entitled to a match with Lynch.

BASEBALL WAR AVERTED

CHICAGO — Possibility of a clash between Ban Johnson, president of the American League and Commissioner K. M. Landis was removed today with the announcement that the American League meeting would be held Wednesday in New York.

The meeting was originally scheduled for Chicago on Wednesday the day before the joint session of the American and National Leagues in New York called by Landis.

The meeting here would have precluded the possibility of the same representatives of the clubs attending both meetings.

Johnson's action, however, eliminated this difficulty and apparently reports of an impending clash between Johnson and Landis were unfounded.

It is not believed that either league has much of importance to take up.

The joint session will consider the proposition turned down by the minor leagues of increasing the player limit from 40 to 50 and allowing 25 to be placed on option.

Judge Landis was expected to ask the majors to meet in the same city at the same time as the minor leagues in the future and a bitter fight over the waiver rule was anticipated.

STAR SCORES ONE POINT

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. — Earl Martineau of Minnesota, All-Conference halfback for the season of 1923, one of the best backs in the country, scored but one point for his team during the season.

After Minnesota scored a touchdown against Iowa, the ball was passed to Martineau to try for the extra point. Instead of drop-kicking, Martineau tucked the ball under his arm and make a sweeping run around end, scoring the point.

It was his only scoring all season.

Spencerville Sees Partial Return Of Sunday Blue Laws

SPENCERVILLE — Republicans and business men of Spencerville and the western end of the county are boosting, backing and fighting for the appointment of Spencerville's present marshal, Ernest G. Henne, as one of the deputy sheriffs of the county, when Sheriff-elect H. B. Crosson, takes office the first of the year.

Henne is serving his second term as marshal of Spencerville. Altho a staunch Republican, he has been elected twice in a Democratic town that only ten years ago had but ten Republicans in it.

The appointment of deputies will be up to Crosson and the Republican Executive committee. The appointments will be made this coming week, it is expected.

CHAMP RUNAWAY BACK HOME

Lifetime Wanderings End at Age of 75

SEEKS HAVEN WITH SISTER

All Set to Rest—But Wants to See Cuba

AUBURN, N. Y. — (Special) — This is the true story of America's champion boy runaway.

He ran away to the West to fight the Indians 57 years ago. He fought 'em to his heart's content and today at 75 he's come back home to his sister, Mrs. Mary H. Kilburn, who 13 years ago gave him up for dead.

The fatted calf will be killed at Christmas.

Greer was born in Aurelius, N. Y., in 1848. At 16 he joined the Union Army and fought until he was put out of action by a wound at Gettysburg.

GOES WEST

In 1865 the "prodigal son" spirit seized him and he took Horace Greeley's advice to go West. He landed at Leavenworth, Kas., then an outpost of civilization. He began driving an ox team hauling freight to Denver.

When this lost its thrill Greer pushed further west and took up ox teaming between Fort Laramie and Fort Connor, now in Wyoming but then part of the territory of the Dakotas.

Just then the Fenian movement was at its height. Irish patriots in America planned to force Irish freedom by an armed march on Canada from the United States. Greer joined the movement.

FENIANS COLLAPSE

He came back to New York state to await orders to participate in the "invasion" but the movement collapsed.

So in 1867 Greer returned West and went back to freight hauling. He went to Cheyenne and later to Salt Lake City. Then he pushed on to San Diego, Cal.

Just then Montana was opening up. Greer went up there. He hauled timber across territory populated by the hostile Sioux Indians. Moving about from place to place, he was in the vicinity of the Custer massacre when it took place.

The other day Greer stepped off a train here.

"I'm ready to settle down now," he said, "except I'd kinda like to see Cuba."

STOCK MARKET IS IRREGULAR

Early Gains Almost Wiped Out in Closing Hour

NEW YORK—Some good gains were made by industrial shares, particularly equipments, metals and low-priced oils, in the early part of Saturday's stock market session, but in a number of cases these were materially reduced or wiped out on resumption of selling pressure and profit-taking at the close. Railroad shares were again sluggish, public buying of these issues being almost negligible. Stocks subject to special influences, such as National Lead, which was pushed up four points on stock dividend expectations, and Allied Chemical which advanced more than 3 points on reports of heavily increased earnings in November, were the most active. There was a broadening demand for coppers on resumption of dividends by Butte and United States government issues, a number of which were quoted above 99 on substantial net gains, was a good influence on sentiment. Shorts put out more lines in the last hour, General Electric, Corn Products and General Asphalt being among the most conspicuous to yield to pressure. The close was irregular. Sales approximated 500,000 shares.

PRODUCE REVIEW

Demand for dressed poultry has not been brisk, and selling markets have reflected the condition quickly, somewhat lower prices prevailing. Quite a large surplus has been placed in storage for sale later.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture is making an exhibit at the International Live Stock Show in Chicago December 2-9, which shows the benefit of culling the flock.

Two pens of live chickens are shown. One lot of 12 hens was not culled, and ate in one year 900 pounds of feed, costing $20.70. The 12 hens laid 100 dozen eggs during the year. Contrasted with this lot, one of 8 hens which were culled, and which laid the same number of eggs but ate only 600 pounds of feed at a cost of $13.56. The lot of 12 hens that was not culled ate 50 per cent more feed than the lot that was culled, and produced no more eggs. The extra cost of feed, however, is but one of the larger costs. Others are the extra labor, extra housing room, and extra capital invested.

To enable the poultryman to cull his hens properly, the exhibit gives the points to be looked for when determining a poor layer or a good layer. These points are quickly learned and are means of increasing profits from poultry.

Arrivals of live poultry at Eastern markets have been lighter this week following Thanksgiving, but as quite a few cars were carried over from last week there has been a full supply available.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture in its preliminary report shows stock of butter and eggs in cold storage December 1 as follows:

BUTTER

1922	47,805,000 lbs.
1921	65,129,000 lbs.
Shortage	17,324,000 lbs.

EGGS

1922	3,258,000 cases
1921	2,403,000 cases
Excess	855,000 cases

Deliveries of cream are about normal for this season of the year, but the market tendency has been higher and this has been reflected in the higher prices for butterfat thruout the producing sections. Consumption of butter is not as heavy as a few weeks ago and any further decrease in consumption or increase in production would have a tendency to make for lower prices.

The supply of fresh eggs continue, light. Considering the demand prices have re-acted a little from the high point, and buyers are taking a more conservative position, due to prospects of some increase in production thruout the West and Southwest.

SPENCERVILLE PEOPLE BOOST MARSHAL HENNE FOR DEPUTY SHERIFF

SPENCERVILLE — (Special) — "No more loafing around places of business in Spencerville during church hours, Sunday," was Mayor Adam Hirn's edict Saturday when the major ordered Marshall E. G. Henne to notify owners of restaurants, pool rooms and confectionery stores that in the future all places of business in Spencerville must close between the hours of 9 and 11 30 a m and between 7 and 9 p m on the Lord's day. The marshal was ordered to enforce the new ruling.

This is the first edict that Mayor Hirn has issued in regard to Sunday closing since he was appointed mayor last August, to succeed Mayor C. C. Laman, who at that time resigned. Laman was mayor of the village during the "Blue Sky" war that raged in Spencerville four months.

Hirn has been noted the state over as the "Progressive mayor," for during the short time he been the city's head he has purchased a fire fighting truck for Spencerville and advanced legislation for water works and sewerage.

The edict, to close everything in Spencerville during church hours, except the filling stations of the city is merely enforcing what the business men agreed to, months ago, to stop the "Blue Sky" war that was raging at that time. The business men of the city will live up to the new ruling and no legal fights are looked for, it is stated.

HOHL RENEWS FIGHT FOR AUTO POSSESSION

Louis Hohl, soft drink vender, will make a last stand in appeals court December 18, to recover a car taken from him by court action, and to avoid paying a large liquor fine imposed by Justice of the Peace E. M. Botkin.

Hohl was arrested August 21, 1921, and found guilty before Botkin. His car was seized. Common pleas court affirmed the sentence and Hohl carried the case up on error.

WHEAT ADVANCES THREE CENTS

Active Commission House Buying Brings Boost

CHICAGO—Wheat displayed firm undertone Saturday during the early dealings. There was a good class of commission house buying immediately after the start which readily absorbed the offerings from local traders and prices advanced readily. Offerings increased, however, on the way up and the advance was checked. The opening varied 1-4 decline to a like advance with May $1.17 3- to 1.17 1-2 and July $1.08 1-4, was followed by a slight gain all around.

Corn advanced readily on lack of pressure and scattered buying. After starting a shade off to 1-8 up with May 69 7-8 to 70 cents, the corn market hardened a trifle and then began to climb.

Oats started 1-4 higher to a like decline, May 43 1-8 to 43 3-8 and later scored gains all around.

Provisions were higher, being influenced by strength in hog and grain markets.

The wheat close was strong with values showing a net gain of 1 1-4 to 3 1-8, with May $1.20 1-4 to 1.20 3-8 and July $1.09 1-2 to 1.09 5-8.

Corn closed strong at a net gain of 1 1-8@1-4 to 1 3-4 with May 71 3-8 to 71 1-2.

Resolution No. 605

A RESOLUTION DECLARING IT NECESSARY TO IMPROVE CERTAIN STREETS BY PROVIDING FOR LIGHTING THE SAME WITH ELECTRIC LIGHTS, OR WITH GAS LIGHTS.

WHEREAS, the City Manager, who performs the duties and occupies the position and has taken the place of the Director of Public Service, has presented to this Commission his recommendation, as follows; to wit:

"Lima, Ohio, December 6, 1922.

To the City Commission of the City of Lima, Ohio.

Gentlemen:

The funds provided by taxation, and other income of the City for the year 1923 are insufficient for the operation of the Government of the City of Lima, and the several departments thereof, for the year 1923. The amounts that will be so received will provide no funds for lighting the streets and public places in the City. I, therefore, recommend that the necessary legislation be enacted to assess the cost of lighting the public streets, alleys and public places in the City of Lima, with the electric, electric boulevard, and gas lights now installed and in use in the various streets, alleys and public places in said City.

Respectfully submitted

C. A BINGHAM,
